

Mouth of Rush at Mono, the fresh water current allowing the trout to feed on the brine shrimp.

A lower Rush pond location. The drop structure would be below the green willow bush on the left.

The narrows below the gravel operation.

Top of the Trehey Stump Pool.

Mid pool is approximately four feet deep. The pool was dredged and the stump anchored.

The tail-out of the Stump Pool.